COMMUNITY REPORT:
A CITIZEN'S GUIDE TO LOUISA COUNTY GOVERNMENT
louisacounty.gov/communityreport
The holiday season is upon us. We come together this time of year to create new memories with friends and family, celebrate traditions new and old, and find sincere joy in giving. This issue of our newsletter offers information on yearly favorites (like our tree lighting ceremony and parade), newer offerings (like our “Hometown Holiday”), and ways to make a difference (like with our Angel Tree). However you celebrate and whoever you celebrate with, we encourage you experience your “home for the holidays” in Louisa County through community events and programs. The Visit Louisa app may be used as a resource for residents to find events, as well as discover local dining, shopping, and workshops.

Thank you for being a part of our county. I wish you - my neighbor - holidays filled with happiness.

Christian Goodwin
County Administrator
STUDENT ARTWORK UNVEILING CEREMONY

Each October, student artwork is selected for display in the Louisa County Office Building. The artwork is unveiled at a special ceremony for the Board of Supervisors to formally recognize the young artists, their families and their teachers. Each piece of art represents a great deal of talent and hard work. We congratulate the students and thank them for allowing staff and visitors to admire the creations for the next year!
ASK LOUISA

AWS ANNOUNCEMENT FAQS

Q: Is there historical significance related to the Lake Anna Technology Campus site?
A: As we understand it, graves may be on a parcel which is adjacent to the project and the applicant is going through the normal processes with the state’s Department of Historic Resources to mitigate disruptions. The County doesn’t have a formal role in the effort, but as always, we support a careful consideration of resources.

Q: When is construction going to start?
A: Construction activity may start as soon as 2024.

Q: I read about all the noise pollution associated with data centers. How are we going to handle that?
A: The Technology Overlay District (TOD) standards are the most restrictive development standards in the County. It addresses allowable decibel levels and requires substantial buffer and setbacks to mitigate noise issues. Data centers in other areas are sometimes located very close to residential areas, but the strict standards of the TOD will provide distance to allow the sound to dissipate. The data centers locating here will also leverage water-cooling technology which is a quieter alternative to air-cooling technology.

Q: How will this be different from the Northern Virginia data centers?
A: The Technology Overlay District (TOD) standards are the most restrictive development standards in the County. Noise has been a primary concern at other sites, and the centers here will leverage a quieter water-cooling method. The strict development standards of the TOD will ensure more space between the centers and residential areas, and will allow us to retain our rural character.

The below image shows the TOD parcels in pink, and the Lake Anna Technology Campus and North Creek Technology Campus are represented by the enlarged pink areas.
You may also use the TOD layer of our GIS mapping tool for an interactive look.

Louisa County Animal Shelter
Foster Care Programs

Foster for an animal for 1 day, 1 week, or 1 month! We offer several foster programs that are flexible and work on your schedule. Some animals need a night out on the town, some need a few weeks to grow up! Let us know what you can do and we can match you with a pet!

Adoption Ambassador Program
This amazing program lets fosters help adopt out dogs. Using ‘Adopt Me’ vests, collars and leashes, fosters can take the dogs out on the town and find adopters for them!

Foster to Prosper
We want every animal brought to us to have a chance for a long and happy life. The Foster Care Program brings caring individuals and needy animals together, providing special care in a home setting until the animals are ready for adoption. Foster care allows young ones to grow and the sick and injured to heal. As a Foster to Prosper foster home, you can give these pets the extra TLC they need and get them ready to be adopted!
Animals eligible for foster care:
- Very young kittens and puppies that are approved by the veterinarian and the kennel supervisor (typically less than 8 weeks)
- Animals with a treatable illness, with reasonable intervention
- Animals with a treatable injury, with reasonable time and treatment
- Single raised kittens and puppies, when they can be added to an existing group of siblings with a mother to learn cat/dog behavior

Foster to Adopt
Want to make sure a pet is a good fit before committing? Foster first! You can take a dog or cat in to foster in your home, if it’s a good fit and you want to adopt, just let us know and we will get everything finalized. If you need more time to decide we are very flexible and can work with you and provide tools and resources. If it’s just not a good fit, give us a call and we can arrange bringing the pet back. If animal is in Foster to Adopt, adoption paperwork is not done until the animal is spayed/neutered.

Safety Net Foster
Sometimes families fall on hard times and need a little help getting on their feet. Safety Net Foster will help give them the time they need. When a family is displaced and can’t take their pets with them, fosters with the program will provide a safe pets for these pets until their families are settled and they can take them back home.

Other Programs
We also have programs like Sleepovers, Doggie Day Out, Weekend Warriors, and more!

“Food for Fines” Food Drive at Louisa County Library November 6-18 Benefits Louisa County Resource Council

JMRL is offering something in return for donations to an upcoming food drive benefiting the Louisa County Resource Council.

The “Food for Fines” food drive will take place November 6 - 18. To participate, library patrons can bring non-perishable items such as peanut butter or cans of tuna to the front desk of Louisa County Library during business hours, and receive $1 off overdue and late renewal fines for each donated item. Accounts with unresolved lost or damaged items are ineligible for this offer.

Donations from library patrons who have not incurred any fines are also welcome.

“There are many people in our area struggling to meet their basic needs, which increases their risk of food insecurity,” said Branch Manager Ophelia Payne. “By partnering with the Louisa County Resource Council, we can do our part to help out so that folks don’t have to decide between buying medication, paying bills and feeding their families.”

The library’s food drive started in 2017 and collected 210 pounds of food that year. In 2022, library patrons donated 308 pounds of food.

Lloyd Runnett (L), Executive Director of Louisa County Resource Council, and Ophelia Payne (R), Branch Manager of Louisa County Library, pose with the 308 lbs of food library patrons donated during the 2022 Food for Fines drive.

Louisa Clean is a revamped organization headed up by Beth Ann Boone, Jody Korman, Carol Dezorzi, and Scott Randlett. They work with VDOT, Louisa County Sheriff’s Department, business leaders, HOA/POAs, Louisa County Board of Supervisors members, Keep Virginia Beautiful, Louisa County Public Schools, Elk Creek Baptist Church, numerous volunteers and other organizations to help keep the need for litter control in the forefront of county needs.

The History of Louisa Clean

MARCH 2022
Beth Ann Boone began the “Louisa Clean” movement and started the FACEBOOK group LOUISACLEAN. Tom and Carol Dezorzi, Jody Korman, Scott Randlett and Duane Adams joined the group and started Lake Anna Beautification Friends Adopt A Highway, partnering with VDOT.

DECEMBER 2022
The total number of bags collected for the year equaled the 442. In 2022, six companies provided funding to purchase the LITTER PICK UP AHEAD approved VDOT signs and stands.

SPRING 2023
Louisa High School students submitted logo designs and 1st, 2nd and 3rd places were awarded.

JUNE 2023
The group obtained a $1,000 Green Grant from KEEP VIRGINIA BEAUTIFUL to purchase hats and grabbers.

SEPTEMBER 22, 2023
Louisa Clean members met with the Board of Supervisors to discuss how to more efficiently work together with VDOT, re-institute the Prisoner program, and work with the Louisa Sheriff’s office. They also began working with VDOT to install Littering is Illegal signage around Louisa. Through September 22, 2023, they collected 456 bags and plan to continue through the fall.

The Louisa Clean Motivators

The members of Louisa Clean do what they do because:

- The litter on our streets affects the value of every business and home in Louisa.
- They believe our planet’s future depends on it.
- They want to show people passing through that the residents love and care about Louisa.
- They recognize VDOT cannot keep up due to staffing and funding shortages.
- They want to help keep our wildlife safe; birds, deer, turtles, fish, and even bears.
- According to VDOT, each year, more than 25,000 Adopt-A-Highway volunteers collect more than 44,000 bags of waste along Virginia’s highways. The work clearly needs to be done.
- They believe the more they work, the more they will see others taking initiative.

Should you wish to participate, you may:
1.) Choose an angel and sign it out with the front desk
2.) Shop the wish list
3.) Drop off the gifts (WRAPPED AND LABELED) along with your angel at 114 Industrial Drive no later than December 13 to Jana Green’s attention.

The Louisa County Office Building is located at 1 Woolfolk Avenue, Louisa.

Short-Term Rental (STR) Ordinance

Background:
Short-term rentals (STRs) are accommodations that are rented for a period of less than 30 days. They are often rented out by individuals or businesses to tourists or business travelers. STRs can include apartments, houses, condos, and even rooms in a home. The Virginia Attorney General Opinion has clarified that short-term rentals on agricultural property are categorized as agritourism activities and, therefore, cannot be subjected to regulation by the local zoning code. For areas in Louisa County not zoned agricultural (A1 or A2), the Short-Term Rental Ordinance discussed here is intended to provide the broadest coverage in protecting property owners, increasing occupant safety, and guarding community interests.

The effective date of this code is January 1, 2024.

Zoning Districts Allowing STRs By-Right

The Short-Term Rental Ordinance states STRs are allowed by-right in zones A-1, A-1 (GAOD), A-2 (GAOD) and allowed by-right with restrictions (R-1 (GAOD), R-2 (GAOD), RD. GAOD for short-term rental of a dwelling means all properties zoned Residential Limited (R-1) and Residential General (R-2) located within the boundaries of a designated Growth Area as shown on the 2040 Comprehensive Plan. If you have waterfront property on Lake Anna, you most likely are located in a growth area. If you are unsure of your zoning information, see the following pages, Zoning District Descriptions and our Determine Your Zoning District webpage at louisacounty.gov.

A Owners of dwellings used for short term rental shall provide contact information for the owner and/or any authorized property manager to Louisa County and the dwelling’s subdivision governing body if one exists. Allows local points of contact for concerns.

B The owner shall provide the current Louisa County Code chapters relative to Noise (51) and Solid Waste (62) as well as the definitions for Special Occasion Facilities and Gatherings as part of Short-Term Rental contracts. Ensures the tenants have been given notice of how to handle noise and solid waste during their stay in the County.

C Owner must notify tenants that events, rentals, Special Occasion Facilities and related uses are prohibited, except with valid conditional use permit according to Louisa County Code. Prevents unauthorized special occasion facilities.

D Owner must comply with all Virginia Department of Health regulations. For the safety of tenants and the community.

E The dwelling must comply with all applicable state building code and safety regulations. For the safety of tenants during their stay.

F Owners unable to meet all of the above requirements shall be prohibited from operating a Short-term rental of a dwelling without obtaining a Conditional Use Permit from Louisa County Board of Supervisors. Ensures compliance with sections above.

G A violation under this section shall be enforced as provided in section 86-11 and section 86-11.1. Ensures compliance with sections above.

H The effective date of this code shall be January 1, 2024. Allows time to make arrangements as needed for compliance.
THE APPROACH

How will the goals of the ordinance be accomplished?

Answer: Through a combination of:
- By-right: STRs will be allowed by-right in certain areas, such as Agricultural districts. This will allow homeowners to rent out their properties without having to go through the CUP process or having restrictions. By-right for Agricultural districts is a reflection of the Attorney General Opinion No. 22-036 released in January 2023.
- By-right with restrictions: STRs will be allowed by-right in certain areas, but with restrictions. For example, the number of STRs allowed in a Growth areas will need to provide specific information to tenants.
- Conditional use permits (CUPs): CUPs will be required for STRs in certain areas, such as residential neighborhoods. This will allow the county to carefully consider the impact of each STR on the surrounding community.

How will the ordinance impact responsible STR operators?

Answer: The ordinance aims to establish clear regulations. Responsible STR operators most likely will not need to do much differently.

What happens to reported issues?

Answer: Complaints received by the County will trigger code enforcement investigations.
